

Zola Buser

Colfax, Indiana.

We herewith present above an excellent likeness of little Zola Buser, the six year old daughter of Mrs. Ollie Buser, a milliner well known by the residents of Colfax, Indiana, and surrounding towns. The child was afflicted with tritis and was treated without avail. Finally, a noted physician advised Hood's Sarsaparilla and good health now reigns supreme. Read the following letter:

"Colfax, Ind., Aug. 10, 1894.
"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—As an act of justice and for the benefit of other mothers who, like myself, may have afflicted children, I write you this letter. About the first of February, 1892, my daughter Zola, then three years old, contracted sore eyes of the worst form and in a few weeks

Was Entirely Blind

being unable to tolerate light of any kind. The little one suffered and cried until I was almost crazy and heartbroken. I had the best eye specialist in the city of Frankfort, our county town. He treated her for some four months, but the eyes did not improve, in fact they became worse. My friends advised me to take the child to Indianapolis, and though I felt as though I could not well afford the time and money, as I have to make my own living by my personal labor, I concluded to make another effort to save my daughter's sight, if it landed me in the poorhouse. I therefore took my child to the best eye specialist in that city. He examined her eyes and said that he could do nothing for her. I came away with a heavy heart. On the fourth of July I met my father's family physician in a neighboring village, and he, at my request, examined Zola's eyes and

Advised Me To Try Hood's

Sarsaparilla. I went home and procured a bottle at the drug store and began to give it as directed and wash the eyes with warm water. Soon I began to note an improvement and now, having given the child over a half dozen bottles, her eyes are greatly improved and she can see as well as any one. She is scarcely six years of age, yet I sent her to school for a short term this summer. When she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, she had to eat her meals in a darkened room, but now she is able to sit at the table with the rest of the family." MRS. OLLIE BUSER.

Known to Leading Citizens.

"Dear Sirs:—We hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Mrs. Ollie Buser who makes the above statements, and also with her little girl, Zola. We believe and know the facts to be true and correct in every particular as stated. We reside in Colfax, Ind." JOHN D. BLACKER, Trustee Perry Township; W. H. COOK, Druggist.

What the Doctor Says:

"Gentlemen:—While I do not believe in patent or proprietary medicines and seldom prescribe them, yet I want to say that I know the statements made by Mrs. Ollie Buser of Colfax, Ind., to be true." JAMES A. BERRYMAN, M. D., Darlington, Indiana.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Important Decision Debaring District Courts from Jurisdiction.

Chief Justice Judd is the author of a unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court in a ditch controversy between Mrs. Victoria Ward and J. Kamae, being an appeal from the District Court of Honolulu on points of law. The land involved is situated at Kukuluaoe, Honolulu. The case is now decided in favor of defendant, the appeal by plaintiff being dismissed. The syllabus is as follows:

In an action in the District Court of Honolulu of trespass quare clausum fregit, for digging a ditch on plaintiff's land, the defendant "admitted the acts complained of, claiming title in himself and pleaded to the jurisdiction, denying title of plaintiff." The statute, Section 10, Judiciary Act of 1892, prescribes that district courts shall not have cognizance of real actions, nor actions in which the title to real estate shall come in question. Held, in the absence of a statute or a rule requiring more, the plea is sufficient to oust the District Court of its jurisdiction.

The result of the above decision will probably lead to a suit of ejectment for possession of that portion of the land claimed by both parties. W. Foster for plaintiff; Carter and Carter for defendant.

NEW STEAM LINE

Determined Fight Coming for the Oriental Trade

At the meeting of the executive committee of the Shippers' Association at Seattle recently, discussion was had on the matter of urging the Great Northern railroad to put on a line of China steamers to the Orient, and the secretary was instructed to correspond with several other parties regarding the matter. The association is working hard for the consummation of this scheme and the prospect is good that something will be accomplished in the establishment of this line. In connection with the new project a San Francisco dispatch says:

"That a determined fight between the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company and the Pacific Mail and Occidental lines, for the Oriental trade, is about to be begun seems probable. The Canadian Pacific agency announces that hereafter a steamer will arrive and depart at Vancouver from Yokohama every fourteen days, instead of every twenty-one days, as at present. Arrangements are also being made to have a connection by the Canadian Pacific with Hawaii. The Pacific Mail and Occidental & Oriental lines have made a combination interchanging tickets between San Francisco and Honolulu."

In a recent editorial the Salem, Oregon, Independent says: "Time and again have we seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy tried and never without the most satisfactory results. Whenever we see a person afflicted with hoarseness, with a cough or cold, we invariably advise them to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; and when they do, they never regret it. It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
